Vera Salzer Kestenberg was born in Budapest in 1936. When, in March 1944, Hitler marched into Hungary, conditions got bad for Jews very quickly. Vera was 8 years old at that time. With a forged birth certificate and a few months of practice, Vera assumed the identity of a non-Jewish child. In 1945, after the war, Vera and her family reunited in Budapest. However, by that time, Hungary was under communist rule. The family escaped to Buenos Aires in 1956. There, Vera married her Jewish Hungarian boyfriend. The couple moved to Baltimore in 1959. Today, Vera has 3 children, 10 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren who bring her great joy.

Yom Hazikaron to Yom HaAtzmaut:
 From Binyamin to Beit Binyamin

Jennifer Airley is an exercise physiologist by degree and a personal trainer by profession, with decades of experience helping clients pursue holistic health through physical strength, resilience, and balance. Her approach is deeply rooted in the belief that well-being extends beyond the body. Torah learning and teaching have long been her personal passion, infusing her work with spiritual depth and a focus on inner growth. Jen along with her husband Rob and children made Aliyah in 2006 to Ramat Bet Shemesh from NY. Since the tragic loss of her beloved son, Binyamin Hy"d, who was killed defending Israel in Gaza in 2023, Jennifer's relationship with Hashem has become more public and central to her mission. Her journey of grief has brought her to deepen her already present Bitachon (trust in G-d) and to share that strength with others. Through speaking, writing, and initiatives like Beit Binyamin, she brings together body, soul, and community—encouraging others to find healing, purpose, connection to Torah, Eretz Yisrael and Ribono shel Olam, even in the darkest of times.

Israel360 reflects Israel's international reach and Mizrahi's mission of spreading Torah Eretz Yisrael across the world. To celebrate Israel during the month of Iyar, Mizrahi brings inspiring Israeli speakers and thinkers to 360 communities all around the globe. www.mizrachi.org/israel360
